

JOB PROFILE

Job Title:	Junior PHP Developer
Department:	Infotech
Accountable to:	Head of IT

Job Purpose:

To development, document & maintain web based software systems in accordance with current business goals, strategies and FSA regulations.

Main Duties:

- Develop ongoing and new projects, including liaising with internal & external clients.
- Working individually and within a team to develop PHP based software.
- Planning, documentation and implementation of system changes in a PHP/MySQL/Apache environment.
- Work to deadlines and prioritise work accordingly.
- Continual Professional Development.
- Assist the Infotech Department as required with various support tasks.

Qualifications:

Degree in Software Engineering or comparable commercial experience.

Skills:

- PHP Programming
- MySQL Administration & Programming
- Apache server administration and configuration an advantage.
- Software project management.
- HTML/XHTML/CSS in accordance with standards.
- Linux and Microsoft operating systems configuration and operation.
- Javascript and AJAX technologies.
- Familiarity with CVS systems (Subversion).

Experience:

- Minimum 1 year commercial database design experience, particularly MySQL.
- Minimum 1 year commercial PHP programming experience.
- Minimum 1 year commercial software project management experience.
- Minimum 1 year commercial Linux and Microsoft Windows configuration & operation.